

Transfer of Tenexium's activities to its sole shareholder, SOFRAME

We wish to inform you that Tenexium's activities have been fully taken over by its parent company, SOFRAME, a major player in the defense and security sector.

This strategic decision is designed to strengthen the synergies between the two companies and offer our customers even more innovative and effective solutions.

A strategic takeover for the future:

This new stage in our development strategy, aims to strengthening our market position by capitalizing on the technological advances that Tenexium has developed over recent years in the field of ballistic protection.

By integrating Tenexium's technical expertise within SOFRAME, we will be able to further improve the quality of our products, optimize our processes and enhance our solutions with cutting-edge technologies. We are convinced that this integration will bring significant added value to our customers and partners.

Continuity of operations and services:

All Tenexium's current contracts and commitments are fully maintained and taken over by SOFRAME.

Please note that your current contacts remain unchanged. You can therefore maintain your exchanges with the same contacts for your current or future projects.

We remain at your disposal to answer any questions or provide any additional information you may require.

M. Alexis MABILE
CEO, SOFRAME
